If you're a Formula 1 fan, then you'll be pleased to hear that there is a new British Formula 1 driver, Jolyon Palmer.

Jolyon Palmer is a 25 year old man who was born in Horsham in 1991. His father is a Formula 1 driver and a major UK race circuit owner, Jonathan Palmer.

When he was a teenager, he was already racing at the age of 14 in the T car championships, which is a competition for 14-17 year olds. He wishes to make a big impact on Formula 1.

For Formula 1 fans, let's hope that the experienced Jolyon Palmer can help Britain with this season of Formula 1 which starts at the Australian Grand Prix.
