I am not allowed to join the army until I am 15.

If my country is at war, I should get special protection.

Do you know why Thursday is a special day
this week?

11th November?

It is the 11th Day of the 11th Month...

Remembrance Day is on 11 November and marks the day World War One ended, at 11am on the 11th day of the 11th month, in 1918.

It is an opportunity to remember the service and sacrifice of all those that have defended our freedoms and protected our way of life in all conflict and wars.

Why is it important to remember and commemorate those who have fought in wars?

How does this link to article 38 in the CRC?

How many of these did you get?

- It's important to remember and acknowledge and thank those who have fought to keep children safe
- Children have a right to life. During wars, some people lose their own lives to protect the lives of children and it is important to remember their sacrifice
- If we forget about wars that have protected our way of life, we might make the same mistakes again
- Children have a right to be protected during armed conflicts
- Children under 15 should not take part in war
- It is important to think about how we can achieve a more peaceful future
- It is important to consider ways to avoid war and to resolve conflict

Did you think of anything else?

Reflection

Take some time and find some space to be still and to think

- Think about those who have lost their lives in war and conflict helping to bring freedom and a better life for others
- Think about and appreciate all those people around you who help to keep you safe
- Take some time to think about what peace means to you
