School's Right of the week.

5.

The Government should respect the right of my family to help me know about my rights.

Governments should respect the rights and responsibilities of parents to guide their children.

As I grow, my family should direct and guide me so that I learn to use my rights properly.

- Do you talk to people at home about your rights?
- Do they know that we are a rights respecting school?
- Do we respect others rights at home and at school?

Is it ever fair to judge people on their appearances?

The Chinese authorities have banned footballers from getting tattoos and instructed national team players, who already have tattoos, to remove them or cover them up to set a "good example for society". A growing number of Chinese players have tattoos, including the international defender Zhang Linpeng, who has previously been told to cover up while appearing for the national team and his club, Guangzhou FC. The General Administration of Sport of China (GAS) said in a statement about "strengthening the management of football players", the Chinese Football Association would set out disciplinary requirements for national team players.

Mutual Respect

We all have unique appearance! It is important that we understand and respect that not everyone is same.

Discussion points:

- Do you think this is an important right and why?
- How is this right being met at school?
- Is there anything as a school we can do to ensure this right is met?
