

Grange Park School's Right of the week.

13. I have the right to find out and share information.

This includes the freedom to find, get and share information of all kinds.

I can do this as long as the information is not damaging to myself or others.

I can do this by talking, by writing, by creating art or whatever I choose.

Thumbs up for YES or thumbs down for
NO to these following questions...

Are these rights for every child in the entire world?

Are these rights for every child in the entire world?

Is it true that you get these rights from the ages of 7-16?

Can an adult take these rights from you whenever they want to?

Do you have to earn your
rights?

Is there one right more important than the other?

These are the key facts you need to know about your rights.

Rights are for ALL children.

Rights are there at BIRTH.

Rights CANNOT be taken away.

Rights DO NOT have to be earnt.

All rights are EQUALLY important.

Mutual Respect

We know our behaviour, actions and words can affect other people. If we make a mistake, saying sorry can show we have respect for others and their feelings.
