

This Thursday (as asked for by school council) we have a non school uniform day for the Queens Platinum Jubilee.

We have suggested that we wear Red, White and Blue.

Buckingham palace has unveiled the full line-up of celebrations to mark the Queen's Platinum Jubilee this year.

Street parties, a concert with some of the world's biggest entertainment stars, a chance to see the Queen's home and street parade are just some of the formal plans.

Many will take place during the upcoming special 4 day bank holiday weekend from Thursday 2nd June to Sunday 5th June.

2022 marks 70 years of the Queens service- the first British monarch ever to reach the milestone.

The Queen said that her life

'will always be devoted in service to our country'

In her annual message to the commonwealth
this year.

The platinum Jubilee celebrate 70 years of this service and shows huge amount of dedication and commitment.

So we need to make sure we celebrate her
and all that she has done.

I have a right to relax and play.

I have the right to play, relax, and join in a wide range of cultural, artistic, and other recreational activities.

Adults should think about what I need to make sure I have opportunities to play and relax in my local community and should involve me in planning.

I have a right to play and be with other children in a safe, supportive, stimulating and stress-free environment.

This does not mean I have the right to play whenever I want. It means I have the opportunities when I can and when the time is right.

So enjoy your half term 😊

Enjoy all the Queen's celebrations!!
